The Department of Correctional Services admitted 20,255 offenders into facility custody during calendar year 1987. The major portion (15,654 or 77.3%) of these offenders were court commitments who had been convicted of felonies and sentenced to indeterminate terms of imprisonment. This report presents descriptive data on a variety of attributes describing the characteristics of this group of offenders.

The variables covered in this report include: gender; ethnic group; crime; region; predicate (second) felony status; felony class; minimum sentence; maximum sentence; education; marital status; and county of commitment. Charts showing the percent distributions of the variables are presented along with tabulations of the variable by age on commitment.
